Request for a meeting in New-York with the trade union movement

Dear Mr Corbat,

The Committee for Better Banks' (CBB, a coalition of New York Communities for Change, Make the Road Action Fund and ALIGN), CWA (Communications Workers of America) and UNI Global Finance (UNI), the global union representing 3 million finance and insurance employees in 237 trade unions world wide, are working together to improve conditions for bank workers globally and in the United States.

In many countries around the world, Citibank operates under the ILO Conventions regarding freedom of association for your employees, the right to organize and the right to bargain collectively. We are concerned that in the United States Citibank workers have not been able to form a union to defend their rights and ensure a constructive social dialogue with management.

An international delegation of bank workers from UNI and the Committee for Better Banks will be in New York on February 18th and would like to meet with you on that day. We hope this meeting is a first step in creating a dialogue with Citibank that ensures the rights of free association for workers in the United States are respected.

As a major global financial institution, Citibank can take the lead in restoring the public image of US banks by leading the way towards a new banking culture, through rebuilding the trust of customers and staff.

Please contact Brigid Flaherty, coordinator of Committee for Better Banks, (brigid@alignny.org and 917-678-8944) to confirm a meeting time. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,
